FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (EASTON- January 28, 2010)

Dr. Bailor Obtains Fellow Status

Fred R. Bailor, Jr., DO, FACEP, FACOEP, obtained fellow status from the American College of Emergency Physicians and the American College of Osteopathic Emergency Physicians.

Dr. Bailor is an emergency medicine specialist on the Shore Health System medical staff. He practices in the emergency department at Memorial Hospital in Easton and Dorchester General Hospital in Cambridge.

A graduate of the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine, Dr. Bailor completed a residency in anesthesia at the Community Hospital of Lancaster in Pennsylvania. He is board certified by the American Osteopathic Board of Emergency Medicine.

Dr. Bailor is a charter member of the American College of Osteopathic Emergency Physicians, an organization he helped found in Chicago in the 1970s. The American College of Osteopathic Emergency Physicians supports quality emergency medical care while promoting the interests and professional development of osteopathic emergency physicians. The American College of Emergency Physicians promotes the highest quality of emergency care and is the leading advocate for emergency physicians, their patients and the public.
