

FRANK KROS, MSW, JD

"Insights into Bullying"

September 14, 2010

6:30 pm - 8:30 pm

Easton High School Auditorium
Mecklenburg Avenue

- What is bullying?
- Who are the targets?
- Who are the Bullies?
- What can we do?

A topic that is a concern to communities across the country, Dr. Kros will explore bullying and the ----

Role of the Internet, Characteristics, Steps to Change Behaviors and Prevention

Q & A to follow

Frank Kros is a career child advocate, who has served as a childcare worker, child abuse investigator, children's home administrator, consultant, college professor, attorney, writer and speaker. Certified in applied educational neuroscience, Frank Kros currently serves as president of The Upside Down Organization and executive vice president of The Children's Guild, the largest private provider of special education services in Maryland.

Sponsored by the Mental Health Association in Talbot County,
Talbot County Public Schools and the Upside Down Organization.

Suggested Donation $5.00. Children admitted free.

For more information call 410-822-0444 or e-mail
jdavis@mhamdes.org today!

Mental Health
Association
in Talbot County

Talbot County
Public Schools

